

power + trashcan

The Power + Trashcan is a trashcan with a powerstrip built into the base. The inspiration came from observing cable clutter around surge protectors in people's homes. The base of the trashcan houses a 6 outlet surge protector and provides ample space for coiled up cables. To empty the garbage, the trashcan itself can simply be lifted out of the base, while the power strip remains plugged in to the wall outlet.

